BIGGER MELON IN '29 ASSURED U.S. PEOPLE

YIELD DIVIDENDS WILL RUN BEYOND HALF BILLION MARK

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A Christmas dividend of more than $50,000,000 for shareholders in North American industry, rivaling 1935 year-end distributions, was assured today by a rapidly mounting list of extra and increased payments.

Nearly $70,000,000, including about $10,000,000 in extra payments, was added to the total by some 30 companies. It lifted the figure for 1936 dividends to approximately $100,000,000.

EXTRA PAYMENTS

Roughly half of the total came from extra and enlarged payments as directors digested into increased 1936 profits to beat the year-end deadline for tax credits under the federal surtax on undistributed earnings.

The ranks of workers sharing wage increases and Christmas bonuses also were swelled by more than 65,000 in textile, shoe and other industries today, continuing a movement which already had added up payroll bonuses totaling upwards of $125,000,000 annually for 1,200,000 along a broad industrial front.

Five companies fell in line with Christmas bonuses, pushing the total to $20,000,000. These were a $600,000 distribution by International Shoe company, with headquarters in St. Louis, for 50,000 workers in its numerous plants.

COMMON TRADE

With prices of some of its products advancing on improved demand, the American Telephone and Telegraph company declared its regular $2.25 quarterly dividend, totaling $4,611,680.

The Erie Motor Car company, voted an extra payment of 75 cents a share on the common and a bonus for workers. Coca Cola International Corp., which controls Coca Cola company, ordered an extra of 16 cents besides the $2.25 regular payment on the common, totaling $2,811,327.

RUS EMPLOYEES

Year-end payment distributions totaling from a few hundred to some dollars to more than $300,000 were announced by General Motors, Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., and others. The American Telephone and Telegraph company declared its regular $2.25 quarterly dividend, totaling $4,611,680.

Great Flood Of Buying Forecast

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Great United States Christmas business since 1929 was forecast today by Commerce Secretary Hoover.

Estimating holiday department store sales would be 15 per cent above last year's, he predicted they would amount to $200,000,000. This would compare with $180,000,000 in 1935 and more than $100,000,000 in 1929.

Roper said reports from all sections indicated "marked advances" over last year, and that business generally would be "greater than for any like period since 1929."

VETERANS ASK FOR PROGRAM PUBLIC WORKS

Brief Presented Before Sitting of Veterans' Assistance Committee

Holding that relief stops production of wealth and establishes liabilities both for the present and future generations, the Alberta Veterans' Assistance Committee recommended to the Federal Veterans' Assistance Committee that a program of public works, financed by national credit, be undertaken to relieve unemployment. The committee opened its sitting in the Memorial Hall Thursday morning.

It was suggested that municipal governments undertake erection of municipal office, roads, streets and sidewalks construction and repair, extension of facilities such as sewers, etc., erection of schools, houses and hospitals.

GOVERNMENT OFFICES

Under this scheme it was also suggested that the provincial government could undertake the building of government offices, provincial trunk roads, bridges, housing, reclamation and reforestation, while the federal government could undertake extensive work in trans-continental roads, national waterways and harbors, international waterways and housing schemes.

The personnel of the committee sitting in Lord Col. J. R. Bellamy, C.M.G., Ottawa, Lord Col. J. R. Bellamy, Montreal, and J. H. Macdonald, Vancouver, with H. M. Sinclair, Ottawa, acted as secretary.

EXPRESSION SATISFACTION

Satisfaction was expressed that the Federal government had recognized the direct, tangible help for the welfare of veterans of His Majesty's forces, who had answered the country's call by setting up a commission to deal with soldier affairs.

It was strongly urged that should the Commission set up to get up a program under the provisions of the Veterans' Assistance Commission Act, the headquarters be located at Edmonton. It was considered that the headquarters here would facilitate working with the committee.

LITTLE HOPE

The brief stressed the fact that veterans preferred the opportunity to support themselves and their families through the regular channels of employment and that they saw little hope of accomplishing this for those now unemployed until such time as the various governments decided to initiate a program of public works.

The committee also stressed the fact that the introduction of machinery and modern methods of production, by the introduction of machinery and modern methods of production, had created a surplus of labor and that the government should take steps to absorb this surplus.

PROVIDE WORK

It was suggested that sufficient public works projects be started, financed by national credit, to provide physical relief for unemployed workers.

The committee also stressed the fact that the government should take steps to absorb this surplus.

EXTEND SCALE

Containing that relief stops production of wealth and establishes liabilities both for the present and future generations, the Alberta Veterans' Assistance Committee recommended to the Federal Veterans' Assistance Committee that a program of public works, financed by national credit, be undertaken to relieve unemployment.

PLIGHT OF VETERANS

Plight of the Imperial veterans in Canada was brought vividly to the attention of the committee through the presentation of a list of individual cases of men who were obviously unfit to take any part in the economic structure and who would shortly be charged on the municipality.

They informed the committee that through one or another of these men they were unable to get assistance through the British pension office, and requested that the committee take steps to assist them.

Another individual case was that of a Canadian pensioner, highly intelligent as a clerk, who through nervousness was unable to put his case properly before prospective employers, but who was capable of doing high-class clerical work. He asked that special consideration be given his case.

On the establishment of small holdings in Alberta was forth-

After many witnesses had been heard, B. B. Smith for the appellant, applied for a non-suit.

BRUINS CHALLENGE HALL TO PLAY OPEN HOCKEY

LOOKING THEM OVER

By JACK KELLY
Eaton Trophy Competition Filled
Need in Alberta Golf—Badger
Hunt Planned

THERE is no question but what the T. Eaton Co., Limited made a really wonderful contribution to Alberta golf when they started their challenge cup competition. It was one which has drawn even larger galleries here than championship finals. It has injected a lot of new life into the game from a competitive angle, and by attracting galleries of spectators that run into the hundreds has undoubtedly started many playing golf for the first time.

Speaking on behalf of the pros last night Jam Mountfield pointed out that this competition fitted a long felt need since it provided something in which amateurs and pros could team up together. It also gave the players a chance to become accustomed to competitive play before a big gallery—an opportunity which was needed here to wean Alberta golfers for such events as the Dominion tourney.

Undertaking this challenge competition, which involves a lot of expense and trouble, was an exceptionally fine gesture by the T. Eaton Company in the interests of sport. It is one which is deeply appreciated by the shot-making fraternity of the province. It is so arranged that it does not interfere with any championship events, but provides a continuous supply of feature matches throughout the many dead weeks that occur during the season. At the same time, it is developing two teams in a field which was formerly more or less neglected.

Amateur Shake-up Pending

WHILE the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada is meeting today at Regina in what is expected to be the most significant convention in its history, a big shake-up is pending for the U.S. Amateur Athletic Union when it meets at Houston, Texas, during the first week in December.

Down across the line the boys are planning a real badger slaughter at this Houston meeting, which will eliminate a lot of the pompous deadwood from the A.A.U. Rank inefficiency will be the charge that the old guard of top officials will have to face.

The collegians are leading the fight for a new deal in U.S. amateur athletics. They are sick and tired of training athletes and keeping track and field sport alive only to have a lot of stuffed shirts step in with a bland smile and take over the whole show when Olympic year and its accolades arrive. However, they might even forgive this if the badger troupe could run the show efficiently. They are convinced however that this old guard is hopeless from a managerial angle and they are accordingly out to clean house.

Avery Brundage, retiring president, is likely to be given a hectic ride for his action in sending Eleanor Holm Barrett home—to say nothing of a score of other boners that are chalked up against him, either rightly or wrongly. He has announced that he will not seek office again and the statement has brought nothing but cheers so far.

Money-Raiser Needed

THE U.S. forces are wisely planning right now for the 1940 Olympics in Tokyo. They are faced with an exceptionally long trip and a larger list of events which are bound to send the total costs sky-rocketing. It is estimated that at least $300,000 must be raised—just double of what was raised this year for the first time.

To gather a half million dollars is an assignment that will take a lot of ability to complete. For this reason there is a determined movement underway to put some college man at the head of the A.A.U. who has been successfully staging college track and field meets and making them pay.

One of the suggested means of raising this amount for the Olympics is the imposition of small tax on tickets to all track and field meets during the intervening time. At this stage the collegians step in, however, with the ultimatum that if such is done then they are certainly going to have the driver's seat in the A.A.U. At present they produce 90 per cent of the U.S. Olympic athletes, furnish stadia and equipment, turn over a big share of their receipts, and are then told by pompous badgers to go chase their hoops until the Olympic trip is over.

ENGLAND'S REVAMPED INTERNATIONAL SOCCER

SQUAD HAS 3-1 TRIUMPH OVER IRISH ELEVEN

English Take Ninth In Row Against Irish

STOKE, England, Nov. 19.—A fighting English international soccer team boosted England's stock in representative tilts to a new high Wednesday. By a well-deserved 3-1 victory over Ireland, the Englishmen redeemed themselves after an early setback by Wales.

Criticism was general when the Welshmen snatched a 2-1 verdict at Cardiff, October 17, the first international game of the season. Selections were to work and Ireland produced a winning combination against a Scotland team in an inter-league match and, still not satisfied, chose four new forwards for this game.

40,000 ATTEND
Nearly 40,000 persons flocked to see the first international contest here since 1883 and the sustained interest in watching football on edge throughout. There was dynamic in most of the thrills of the English forwards, but the Irish attack lacked finishing power.

Two of England's goals were scored after a lightning fast combination effort, Ireland's counter coming from Davis, successful leader of the visitors' front force, who performed for Oldham in England.

Worral, Portsmouth, Batlin, George Arden, and John, Stoke City, drew plaudits of the crowd on the attacking line while Britton and Goe of Everton played a dashing game on the defense. Davis shared Ireland's honors with them, Belfast Celtic goalkeeper.

40 OUT OF 51
It was the ninth successive win over Ireland for the Englishmen, who have captured 46 out of 51 games played between the two countries. Ireland has held winning terms four times and the remaining seven ended in draws.

After 20 minutes' play a Britton-Worral-Carter combination was revealed when the latter headed the ball into the net. Davis wriggled through 12 minutes later to equalize and end the first half.

England's attack had more ginger in the final period and 20 minutes from time took command and bottled the Irishmen in their own territory. Batlin sent his team in front and Worral made it 3-1 on a great play with Stoke's attackman, Steele.

As Chelsea Battled Albion

This hectic duel for the ball took place at Stamford Bridge, when Chelsea battled West Bromwich Albion in a first division football game. Spectors, of Chelsea and Tottenham, of the Albion, are the individual rivals with neither of the dribblers having much of an advantage.

Four Former Golf Champions Blasted From U.S. Pro Tourney At Pinehurst

Revolta, Sarazen, Runyan and Armour All Beaten As Favorites Fall Rapidly

In Feature Pro. Event

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 11.—Fairways of the Pinehurst Country Club course were covered with star dust Wednesday in one of the worst carnages of American golf after two 18-hole rounds of the United States professional golfers' championship.

Defending Champion Johnny Revolta, and three former champions, Gene Sarazen, Paul Runyan and Tommy Armour, were blown out of sight in sharp explosions which left only a few favorites among the 15 survivors of 64 who qualified.

TOOK REVOLTA

Harold McGowan, of Winchester, Mass., whose previous claim to fame were victories in the 1935 San Francisco open match play tournament and the 12-hole Pasadena open, defeated Revolta cpe up at the 19th hole. Revolta had led McGowan, Marshall Critchton, of Durham, N.C., 6 and 5, in the first round. Revolta, winner of the title in 1930 and runner-up last year, Sarazen, champion in 1922-23 and '28, and Runyan, king two years ago, were knocked out in the second round. Armour bowed to Mortie Duff, of Detroit, 4 and 3; Runyan lost to Clarence Dorr, of Rochester, N.Y., 2 and 1; and Sarazen yielded to Jack Patton, of Shawnee, Okla., 2 and 1. Sarazen, on the 18th green, beat the limits who were his rivals didn't last long. They were slaughtered in the afternoon.

OTHER UPSETS

There were at least two other results in the nature of upsets, second round victories by Victor Glezzi, of Del., 2-1, an up over Fay Coleman, of Culver, Ind., 2 and 1, and a qualifying medalist, Jimmy Hines, Garden City, N.Y., 2 and 1, over Ray Munster, of Philadelphia. Henry Field, of Hershey, Pa., who now looms as a team to beat, and Tony Maner, of Greensboro, N.C., reigning United States open champion, passed the severe two-round test. They had narrow squeaks in the morning and then shepherded their afternoon opponents.

Anything May Tear Loose When Agnost Meets Kusek

If you see an item of this sort in the weekend Saturday "Lion" and two arms please return to Klen Kusek or Martin Agnost, don't look surprised, or smile. The fact is, these two wrestling gents are fighting Mike Cutler's pro wrestling card at the Memorial hall Friday.

When one of them is in the ring it's bad enough. One could expect sharp molar or fragments of fractured jaws floating around, and when they're both in there, and grappling against each other, then anything can be expected, barring clean wrestling.

Now that fans have been warned of the scope and far-reaching possibilities of this league that both "gentlemen" are really quite accomplished wrestlers and being evenly matched their bout should feature some dazzling action.

The semi-wrestling will also take a generous share of the fan-light. Buck Weaver, a professional wrestler, will meet Otto Clinegan, top-ranking in the mid-west, in a return act.

LIVEWIRES AND COMETS VICTORS

Livewires and Comets emerged victorious from two hard fought basketball encounters Wednesday night at the Macdougall gym. Livewires defeating Apaches 34-32, while Comets trounced Maple Leafs 19-19.

The Livewires-Apache battle featured a tight defensive game, both teams playing a very brand of ball and waiting for the break.

For the Red-shirted Livewires, MacGyver and Clarke were exceptionally strong on the offensive. While Moultrie was a bulwark on defense, the Coultis boys led the line in pep and playing ability.

The second game was fast, throughout with every player going his "best lick" all times. Richards and Collins led the attack for the Leafs with seven and four points, respectively. Pierce with 16 and Magee with eight were standouts for the Comets.

LINEUPS

Livewires—MacGyver 15, Ferguson 2, McElroy 16, Clarke 3, Graham 10, Young 2.

Apaches—MacGyver 15, Ferguson 2, McElroy 16, Clarke 3, Graham 10, Young 2.

Offer Big Forfeit If Boston Players Fail In Agreement

Set Forfeit at $1,000 If Agreement Made By All Teams To Play Wide Open Game for Hockey Fans

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—Boston Bruins' management Wednesday challenged all of other National Hockey League clubs to play a wide open game here and offered to forfeit $1,000 if their players failed to play that sort of hockey on the road.

"The policy of the Boston Bruins this year will be to play wide open hockey," a letter signed by President Weston W. Adams and General Manager Arthur H. Ross and addressed to all the other club owners, read:

"The public is entitled to see this game played as it should be played, only in Boston but in your city also. Naturally, we will play open hockey in Boston because our fans are entitled to it. We wish also to play open hockey on the road but we will do this only if opposing clubs will play open hockey in Boston."

CHALLENGE ALL
"We challenge the presidents and managers of rival National league clubs to play this open type of hockey in Boston and with that end in view, we will agree to pay $1,000 to any club against which we do not play open hockey on their home ice, provided that club will agree to pay $1,000 to the Bruins any time it does not play open hockey in Boston."

The further purpose that two newspapers in each city be appointed by the home club to decide after each game whether or not the visiting club has played open hockey.

"Any club that will not accept this challenge will be given the same sort of hockey, game for game on their ice by the Bruins, which they play on Boston ice."

One of the most of the most open games played here in years, were played last night when the Bruins bowed to the New York Rangers 6-1.

SMYTHE LEFT
OVER BRITISH IDEA
TORONTO, Nov. 19.—The idea of Boston Bruins' management for National Hockey league clubs to post $1,000 each to insure "wide open hockey" leaves Cunny Smythe entirely cold.

"They like all other Smythe ideas. They're just trying to put the buck on to the other clubs," said the manager of Toronto's Maple Leafs. "They don't need to send those letters to us."

"The Leafs always play open hockey. We scored 100 goals last year more than any other club, and you don't get goals by luck. As far as Toronto is concerned we have always played wide open hockey in Boston and packed them in. I can't say the same of them in Toronto," Smythe added.

As a parting card, the Leafs pilot commented, "It looked like we were playing wide open hockey and will continue to do so."

As far as Boston adme is a splendid idea; I'm all for open hockey. I find the proposal interesting."

As far as I know, everyone is in complete accord with the idea of playing an open game," Calder declared. "That's what the customers want."
